

Aston Rowant School Shines in SIAMS Inspection

We are delighted to share the wonderful news that Aston Rowant Church of England Primary School has received an incredible SIAMS (Statutory Inspection of Anglican and Methodist Schools) report following its recent inspection.

The report praises the school for living out its Christian vision: “To be a community of courageous life-long learners, who are rooted in God, live out our Christian values and enjoy life in all its fullness” This vision is described as deeply rooted and inclusive, shaping every aspect of school life — from strategic decisions to daily routines and relationships.

Inspectors highlighted the school’s strong sense of community and care:

“Aston Rowant is a small school with a big heart which strives to care deeply for all” and “Leaders have high aspirations for their community. They know and cherish each individual member.”

The report also celebrates the nurturing environment that enables pupils to flourish:

“Pupils are thoroughly prepared and well equipped to leave Aston Rowant as confident individuals who have strong self-belief. They have a true sense of self-worth and “Families frequently highlight how the school goes ‘above and beyond’ to help their children to progress and achieve their full potential.”

Our children are empowered to speak out and take action — whether presenting to MPs, setting up recycling stations, working with the local foodbank or championing causes the children believe in. Our children are learning to be courageous and take action and live with purpose and compassion.

This captures the heart of what makes Aston Rowant School. This reflects a culture of care and commitment that ensures every child is supported to thrive academically and personally. It’s not just about academic success—it’s about nurturing resilient, compassionate learners who are ready to make a positive difference in the world.

This glowing report is a testament to the dedication of our staff, governors, clergy, and families who work together to create a school where every child is cherished and encouraged to thrive.

We hope that you enjoy celebrating this achievement with us and continue to support Aston Rowant as we live out our vision in the heart of our community.
